

2018 Australian Competitive Grants Register (ACGR)

Application to extend an ACGR listed scheme

From 2011, schemes on the ACGR were listed for a maximum of 5 years. By completing this declaration, continuing schemes whose listing is due to expire after the 5 year period will be considered for re-listing for up to a further 5 years (2018 to 2022).

This form is only to be used to seek an extension of schemes already listed on the ACGR. Only applications related to schemes whose listing expires at the end of the current year will be considered.

Scheme managers wishing to apply to list new schemes should fill out the separate Application for new listings form.

Applications to extend a listed scheme will be accepted until 5pm on 15 September 2017 (Australian Eastern Standard Time).

If you consider that the scheme complies with all criteria, sign and date the declaration and send the form by e-mail to RBGrants@education.gov.au. Do not post your application for listing. Keep the original for your records.

Once declarations are received, the Department may contact scheme managers for further information. The Department remains the sole authority in determining a scheme's inclusion on the ACGR.

If you require further information please contact the department via e-mail: RBGrants@education.gov.au. Scheme managers should consult the Explanatory Notes for further information, available on the department's website: www.education.gov.au/australian-competitive-grants-register

Please indicate whether the scheme is compliant with each of the following criteria by placing either a Y (Yes) or N (No) in the box.

Scheme Manager's Declaration:

I declare that:

	Y/N
This scheme continues to comply with the selection criteria:
